

Negress Murdered.

The Atlanta Constitution (1881-1945); Mar 19, 1919;

pg. 7

Negress Murdered.

Suffering from several stab wounds which she received last Sunday night by an unknown assailant, Queen Esther Jackson, a negro woman, of 101 East Harris street, succumbed at the Grady hospital Tuesday morning. Shortly before her death the negro woman told the police that she had stepped into the yard to get a drink of water from the hydrant, when suddenly some unknown negro stepped from the darkness and stabbed her. Her assailant made his escape.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.